Location

Sa Coma is located on the east coast of Mallorca. The highlight of the town is the long sandy beach, the Platja de Sa Coma, with almost 900 metres to feel good and relax. Directly adjacent is the nature reserve that connects Sa Coma with Cala Millor. Enjoy a nice excursion here on foot or on horseback over the headland "Punta de n'Amer". In the centre of Sa Coma there are numerous shops to stroll around and restaurants, some of which are even open all year round. The tourist town of Cala Millor, about 5.5 km away by car, also offers a year-round infrastructure, supermarkets and doctors. In summer, the small mini-train "Badia Express" offers a quick and inexpensive way to get to the surrounding villages or to the nearest beaches. Other popular destinations are the charismatic harbour town of Porto Cristo and the two medieval villages of Artà and Capdepera. Four very well-maintained golf courses within a radius of approx. 15 km are also worth mentioning.
